

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE A GUIDE

Version 04 updated December 2025

West College Scotland is committed to providing an excellent education and high-quality services to our students from enrolment to graduation.

We value complaints and use information from them to help us improve our services.

1. If something goes wrong or you are dissatisfied with our services, please tell us. This leaflet describes our complaints procedure and how to make a complaint. It also tells you about how we will handle your complaint and what you can expect from us.

What is a complaint?

2. We regard a complaint as any expression of dissatisfaction about our action or lack of action, or about the standard of service provided by us or on our behalf.

What can I complain about?

3. You can complain about things like:

- the admissions process.
- the disciplinary process.
- a request for a service or for information which has not been actioned or answered.
- wrong information about academic programmes or college services.
- the quality and availability of facilities and learning resources.
- accessibility of our buildings or services.
- failure or refusal to provide a service.

- inadequate quality or standard of service, or an unreasonable delay in providing a service.
 - dissatisfaction with one of our policies or its impact on the individual.
 - failure to properly apply law, procedure or guidance when delivering services.
 - failure to follow the appropriate administrative process.
 - conduct, treatment by or attitude of a member of staff or contractor (except where there are arrangements in place for the contractor to handle the complaint themselves); or
 - disagreement with a decision, (except where there is a statutory procedure for challenging that decision, or an established appeals process followed throughout the sector).
4. Your complaint may involve more than one WCS service or be about someone working on our behalf.

What can't I complain about?

5. There are some things we can't deal with through our complaints handling procedure. These include:
 - a request for information or an explanation of policy or practice.
 - a disagreement with academic judgment.
 - a concern about student conduct.
 - a routine first-time request for a service.

- ▶ a request for compensation only.
 - ▶ issues that are in court or have already been heard by a court or a tribunal (if you decide to take legal action, you should let us know as the complaint cannot then be considered under this process).
 - ▶ disagreement with a decision where there is a statutory procedure for challenging that decision (such as for freedom of information and subject access requests), or an established appeals process followed throughout the sector.
 - ▶ a request for information under the Data Protection or Freedom of Information (Scotland) Acts.
 - ▶ a grievance by a staff member or a grievance relating to employment or staff recruitment.
 - ▶ a concern raised internally by a member of staff (which was not about a service they received, such as a whistleblowing concern).
 - ▶ a concern about a child or an adult's safety.
 - ▶ an attempt to reopen a previously concluded complaint or to have a complaint reconsidered where we have already given our final decision.
 - ▶ abuse or unsubstantiated allegations about our organisation or staff where such actions would be covered by our Behaviours Framework; or
 - ▶ a concern about the actions or service of a different organisation, where we have no involvement in the issue (except where the other organisation is delivering services on our behalf).
6. If other procedures or rights of appeal can help you resolve your concerns, we will give information and advice to help you.

Who can complain?

7. Anyone who receives, requests or is directly affected by our services can make a complaint to us. This includes the representative of someone who is dissatisfied with our service (for example, a relative, friend, advocate or adviser). If you are making a complaint on someone else's behalf, we will need their written consent. Please also read section 27 below on Getting help to make your complaint. Please note that if you are under 16 you may find it helpful to refer to further guidance from the SPSO.

Getting Help to make a complaint

8. College staff can help resolve your complaints quickly and efficiently. Please always speak to a member of staff in the first instance.
 - WCS Student Association has offices on each of our campuses and can offer support and assistance as an advocacy service to help you construct feedback in an appropriate way.
 - Please note that if you are under 18 you may find it helpful to refer to further guidance from the SPSO - Child Friendly Complaints-handling Principles

 - by phone on 0808 168 62 40.
 - in writing to the Quality Department (Complaints), Paisley Campus, Renfrew Road, Paisley, PA3 4DR.

10. It is easier for us to address complaints if you make them quickly and directly to the service concerned. So please talk to a member of our staff within the department you are complaining about. Then they can try to resolve the issue quickly for you.

11. When complaining, please tell us:

- 👉 your full name and contact details.
- 👉 as much as you can about the complaint.
- 👉 what has gone wrong for you; and
- 👉 what you would like us to do to resolve your complaint.

How long do I have to make a complaint?

12. Normally, you must make your complaint within six months of:

- 👉 the event you want to complain about; or
- 👉 finding out that you have a reason to complain.

13. In exceptional circumstances, we may be able to accept a complaint after the time limit. If you feel that the time limit should not apply to your complaint, please tell us why.

What happens when I have complained?

14. Your complaint will be recorded and monitored by our Quality Standards Coordinators, and you will be advised which Investigating Manager has been assigned to your complaint.

15. You can help us progress your complaint effectively by:

- 👉 working with us to agree the key points of complaint when an investigation is required.
- 👉 responding promptly to reasonable requests for information.
- 👉 respecting staff in line with our College Student Behaviours Framework.

Our complaints procedure has two stages:

Stage 1: Frontline response

16. We aim to respond to complaints quickly (where possible, when you first tell us about the issue). This could mean an on-the-spot apology and explanation if something has clearly gone wrong, or immediate action to resolve the problem.
17. We will give you our decision at stage 1 in five working days or less, unless there are exceptional circumstances.
18. If you are not satisfied with the response we give at this stage, we will tell you what you can do next. If you choose to, you can take your complaint to stage 2. You must normally ask us to consider your complaint at stage 2 either:
 - within six months of the event you want to complain about or finding out that you have a reason to complain; or
 - within two months of receiving your stage 1 response (if this is later).
19. In exceptional circumstances, we may be able to accept a stage 2 complaint after the time limit. If you feel that the time limit should not apply to your complaint, please tell us why.

Stage 2: Investigation

20. Stage 2 deals with two types of complaint:
 - where you remain dissatisfied after stage 1 and
 - complaints we receive which clearly require investigation, and so are handled directly at this stage. If you do not wish your complaint to be handled at stage 1, you can ask us to handle it at stage 2 instead.
21. When using stage 2:
 - we will acknowledge receipt of your complaint within three working days
 - we will contact you and confirm our understanding of the complaint issues you are raising and what outcome you are looking for.
 - we will try to resolve your complaint where we can (in some cases we may suggest using an alternative complaint resolution approach, such as mediation); and
 - where we cannot resolve your complaint, we will give you a full response as soon as possible, normally within 20 working days.
22. If our investigation will take longer than 20 working days, we will let you know our revised time limits and keep you updated on progress.

What if I'm still dissatisfied?

23. After we have given you our final decision, if you are still dissatisfied with our decision or the way we dealt with your complaint, you can ask the Scottish Public Services Ombudsman (SPSO) or the Scottish Qualifications Agency (SQA) (or other awarding body) to look at it. For qualifications that are regulated, if you remain dissatisfied with the way the awarding body has handled your complaint then you may complain to the qualification's regulator, SQA Accreditation.
24. The SPSO are not able to look at assessment decisions/academic judgement and do not have the power to revise course awards. This can only be achieved through an 'academic appeals' process. The SPSO consider complaints about the quality of service and maladministration, which may include issues surrounding course delivery. If your complaint is about an assessment decision please contact the teaching department in the first instance and if you remain dissatisfied, contact the Quality Department (details below) for further advice and assistance.
25. Further information on who to approach about your complaint is available from the Quality Department Quality@wcs.ac.uk or call us on 0808 168 62 40 or in person at our campus reception areas as detailed in section 8 above.
26. Before you seek an external review, your complaint must first have been considered by the college.

The SPSO are an independent organisation that investigates complaints. They are not an advocacy or support service (but there are other organisations who can help you with advocacy or support).

You can ask the SPSO to look at your complaint if:

- ▶ you have gone all the way through the College's complaints handling procedure
- ▶ it is less than 12 months after you became aware of the matter you want to complain about; and
- ▶ the matter has not been (and is not being) considered in court.

The SPSO will ask you to complete a complaint form and provide a copy of our final response to your complaint. You can do this online at www.spsso.org.uk/complain/form or call them on Freephone 0800 377 7330.

You may wish to get independent support or advocacy to help you progress your complaint. See the section on Getting help to make your complaint below.

Quick guide to our complaints procedure

Complaints procedure

You can make your complaint in person, by phone, by email or in writing.

We have a two-stage complaints procedure. We will always try to deal with your complaint quickly. But if it is clear that the matter will need investigation, we will tell you and keep you updated on our progress.

Stage 1: Frontline response

We will always try to respond to your complaint quickly, within five working days if we can.

If you are dissatisfied with our response, you can ask us to consider your complaint at stage 2.

Stage 2: Investigation

We will look at your complaint at this stage if you are dissatisfied with our response at stage 1. We also look at some complaints immediately at this stage, if it is clear that they need investigation.

We will acknowledge your complaint within three working days.

We will confirm the points of complaint to be investigated and what you want to achieve.

We will investigate the complaint and give you our decision as soon as possible.

This will be after no more than 20 working days unless there is clearly a good reason for needing more time.

Scottish Public Services Ombudsman

If, after receiving our final decision on your complaint, you remain dissatisfied with our decision or the way we have handled your complaint, you can ask the SPSO to consider it.

There are some complaints that have an alternative route for independent review.

We will tell you how to seek independent review when we give you our final response on your complaint.
